Newton Animal Control in Georgia. Adopters and Rescue Groups Needed!

Fri, 2012-08-10 16:52 — Robin Olson

We all know it's been a tough summer on cats in Kill shelters. The warm winter gave way to an extra breeding season. It's hard for me to post photos of these cats knowing full well what their fate may be, but if I don't try and we don't try to get the word out, then they have zero chance.

Instead of getting sad about this, let's try something new. I'm not going to make hysterical claims or beg you to save their lives. All I'm going to do is share this with you and ask you to do the same with your friends. By sharing this with others, perhaps we'll find a few special people who can make room in their home to take on one more or a rescue who can do their thing and help another cat in dire need.

These cats are located at Newton County Animal Control which is located at 210 Lower River Rd. Covington, GA 30016

If you're with a rescue group and want to help, you have to have a license from the state of Georgia to pull an animal out of this facility. There may be licensed rescues who will pull on your behalf, but that's something I can't advise on.

Georgia licensed rescues contact: FREDDIE 770-786-9514 They are open M-F 11 am to 4:30 pm for adoptions/pulls (which can take up to 24 hrs) and they are hoping to hear from some of you!

These are just SOME of the cats and kittens who need help. They're all friendly.

You'll find MORE photos of most of these kitties (and ones not listed above) on this link to a PHOTOBUCKET web site [1]

Let's start sharing on Facebook and Twitter and wherever you wish. That's all I ask. Hopefully this information will find the right place to land and some of these cats will have a happy future.

As always, THANK YOU FOR YOUR HELP. The kitties thank you, too.

Paws crossed for them all.

Good Idea <sup>[11]</sup>

I really like the way you try to keep a positive outlook on this. I know how extremely difficult that can be for those of us involved in cat rescue. I think sharing these is a good idea, not only because it may help find homes for these kitties in need, but also because it may help educate people about the problem and get more people to spay and neuter their pets. I'll be sharing this on our Facebook page.
